

Conditions for Cambridge English exams

The full exam fee is SEK 2500:-. Please note that the payment conditions referred to on the invoice apply to courses run by Folkuniversity in Sweden and not to external exams run by Cambridge.

If you change your mind you must contact us before 12 noon on the deadline, because after this date your enrolment is binding, which means you lose your fee if you do not attend on test days. To withdraw you must contact the person named below by e-mail only.

If you are absent through illness, a medical certificate is required in order for you to receive a refund of your fee (minus an administrative charge of 350:-).

The speaking test may be held a few days before the main exam.

Exam centres are required to take i-d photos on one of the exam days. The photo may be used by colleges you may apply to in the future, as a means of verifying your result. But you have the power to decide which college or organization may access your photo.

Important information about time and place for the different parts of the exam will be sent a few weeks before the exam, to the e-mail address you have provided. It is vital you check your mailbox regularly.

If you need to know more about the exam, you can go to www.cambridgeenglish.org or check Cambridge on Facebook.
