Folkuniversitetet in partnership with The British Council offers the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) in Göteborg.

The Test:

- The Academic module assesses whether a candidate is ready to study or train in English at an undergraduate or postgraduate level. The General Training module is suitable for candidates who are going to English-speaking countries to complete their secondary education or to work or take part in training programmes which do not demand a degree level.
- For further information about the test format and timings, please see Information for Candidates Booklet

Applications:

- All applications must be made in advance.
- Please apply via the online registration system <https://ieltsregistration.britishcouncil.org/test-chooser/se?organisation=Folkuniversitetet-Gothenburg>
- You must provide a copy of the ID you register during the application process. You can either upload it or send it to us by email or post.
- The only accepted ID is your passport including photo and signature OR, if you are an EU national, your national ID card. The only accepted Swedish national ID card is the one issued by Polismyndigheten (Swedish police). Skatteverket ID and driving licences are not accepted.
- Once your application has been submitted, you cannot go back to change your details. Please email us if you have made a mistake and we can correct it for you.
- Further information and instructions about the test will be emailed to you approximately a week before your test date.

Speaking Test:

- The Speaking test is scheduled at 20-minute intervals either on the same day or the day before the three written components (Listening, Reading and Writing).
- If you do attend your speaking test at the scheduled time, there is a fee of 500 SEK including VAT.

Practice Materials

- A link to practice material is available to you from the British Council once your registration is complete. There is also a self-study book 'Official IELTS Practice Materials' available to order from online bookshops.

Test Results

- For paper-based tests, results will be available online and posted to you exactly 13 days after the test. For computer-based tests, results will be available online and posted to you between 3 and 5 days after the test. Your results can be viewed in your Test Taker Portal <https://ieltsregistration.britishcouncil.org/login?organisation=Folkuniversitetet-Gothenburg>.
- Candidates receive only one copy of their test result.
- You can request that we release your result to an organisation/institution. Full postal addresses should be entered during your online application. Alternatively, you can request additional TRFs by filling in this form. Scan and email it along with a copy of the ID you registered with to: ielts.goteborg@folkuniversitetet.se
- You can request that we release your results to five institutions/organisations free of charge. Each subsequent additional Test Report Form may incur a postal charge.
- British Council rules mean we cannot email results nor give results over the phone.
- You may collect your result in person at Folkuniversitetet in Gothenburg but only if you agree this with us by email before the results are released. ielts.goteborg@folkuniversitetet.se
- Enquiry on Result (EOR): If you are not satisfied with all or part of your result, you may ask for an enquiry on result (EOR). This process costs 1250 SEK including VAT which will be refunded if your result increases after being re-marked. Your result will normally be available in 2 to 21 days. All EOR forms and payments must be received no later than 6 weeks after your test date. Please contact the IELTS administration for more information.
