

Support and career matching

Folkuniversitet Borås

We know where to find your new job!

Folkuniversitet's Support and career matching service helps improve your chances and shortens the journey towards work and study. Thanks to our expertise and major professional connections, we can help you find your new job - either straight away or through studies.

As a jobseeker, you will meet with our dedicated and professional coaches who have connections in all industries. We know where to find your new job! No matter what your background or needs, we can give you the tailor-made support you need. We know that you have valuable experience and knowledge. So we make the most of them when we match you with a job!

Why choose Folkuniversitet?

- We know where to find your new job.
- We can match you with employers through our contacts in your industry.
- If you want to continue studying, we can help guide you in the right direction.
- The coaches give you the support you need. It's what they do best.
- Folkuniversitet is a non-profit organisation, meaning we invest all of our resources into supporting you.
- Folkuniversitet has helped thousands of people go on to work or further education.

Satisfied participants

Evaluations have shown that 87% of our participants are satisfied with having chosen Folkuniversitet. We will not settle until everyone who contacts us has achieved their goals and found work or started studying.

Here's how

- Select Folkuniversitet in the service Support and Matching on My pages or contact the Swedish Public Employment Service, enter KA-number 10064158 and say that you will choose Folkuniversitet.
- Wait for a decision from the Public Employment Service.
- Keep an eye out for a notification from Folkuniversitet welcoming you to your first meeting.
- Now you're up and running!

We look forward to meeting you.
